Dear Gurpreet,

Congratulations! It is my pleasure to offer you admission to the University of British Columbia.

UBC takes great care in selecting the incoming class from each year's pool of remarkable, talented applicants. Your hard work, academic achievements, and experiences have set you apart. I am confident that you will harness your passion and drive to contribute to our vibrant UBC community, and to build upon the outstanding academic legacy of our alumni.

As a UBC student, you will join a diverse group of leaders, scholars, and innovators at one of the top 40 research universities in the world. Students from more than 150 countries choose the University of British Columbia for many reasons. Some choose us for our high academic standards and beautiful campus locations. Others choose us for our outstanding faculty, our globally significant research opportunities, and our commitment to sustainability. Your reasons for choosing UBC will be uniquely yours - but I hope you will accept this offer of admission because UBC believes you have a great deal to accomplish here. It is students, like you, who make the University of British Columbia such an exceptional learning environment.

To formally accept UBC's offer of admission, visit the Student Service Centre at www.students.ubc.ca/ssc. See the second page of this letter for instructions. Because you are an international student who will be attending UBC for more than six months, you must apply for a study permit as soon as you accept your UBC offer. Please refer to Step 2 in the New Student Guide for more information. The UBC Registration and Orientation Guide found at <https://you.ubc.ca/beginhere> provides you with all the information required to help you plan for a successful year at UBC.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Ross
Associate Vice-President and Registrar
University of British Columbia
