The University of Calgary is committed to offering a high quality education and experience for our students. To assist international students with planning for their education costs, we have outlined the maximum total tuition per academic year for 2022-2023 through 2025-2026, inclusively. These tuition fees are in addition to the expenses outlined above.

The maximum tuition (CAD) for the Bachelor of Commerce with a major in Finance is:

| 2022-2023 | 2023-2024 | 2024-2025 | 2025-2026 | Total Tuition |
|------------------|------------------|------------------|------------------|----------------------|
| $27,587.10 | $30,345.80 | $33,380.40 | $36,718.40 | $128,031.70 |

Tuition rates are calculated on 15 units per term (five 3-unit courses), or a maximum of 30 units for the fall and winter terms. Courses taken outside of the Haskayne School of Business may have a different rate. In these cases, the appropriate faculty tuition rate will be applied.

The Government of Canada requires all international students pursuing a program of study greater than six months in length to have valid study permit to legally study at the University of Calgary. When you apply for a study permit, it is important that you follow the "visa office instructions" based on your country of residence. Details can be found at: <https://www.cic.gc.ca/english/information/applications/student.asp>.
